Council leadership update

GT DEI Best Practices and Collaboration

- Met with Mary McDonald and Richard Utz
 - Dr. Mary McDonald: ADVANCE Professor
 - Dr. Richard Utz: Associate Dean for Faculty Development
- Topics
 - Enhancing communications and transparency of the Council (with the communications action group)
 - Building connections with GT DEI leadership and DEI groups across campus
 - Summarizing GT DEI best practices
- Supporting DEI capacity-building efforts
 - Across campus (not top-down, i.e. driven from the unit level)
 - Within IAC

Supporting DEI Capacity-building Efforts

- Include in the conversations not just top DEI leaders, but
 - Past and current DEI Fellows, Faces of Inclusive Innovation, Inclusive Leaders Academy Alumni
 - DEI committee members, groups, activists
- Supporting the work of the current GT DEI Fellows at IAC
 - Total 9 DEI Fellows are in IAC out of 33 total
 - Katja Weber: “How can we improve trust/confidence & make students & faculty from the Global South feel safe, welcome & empowered at GT?” (katja.weber@inta.gatech.edu)

Action group activity updates

- Quick reminder
 - Types of activities
 - Council-only workshops/events
 - College-wide workshops/events
 - Education campaigns
 - Analysis of issue areas
 - Specific programs or policy proposals
 - Timeline
 - Aim to complete or report on progress in April-May of 2022

Climate Action Group Update

- Topics Discussed
 - Reviewing the latest Climate Survey instrument
 - interested in developing mechanisms to address marginalization and perceptions of bias
 - educating the community about the value of critical race theory, reducing marginalization of minority groups in our GT community, and improving our understanding issues of well-being and mental health
 - Ensure that data on NTT faculty are reported (was not included in the previous reports, but is resolved)
 - “How do we manage in the new normal?”
- Action Items
 - Host small conversations about difficult subjects
 - Currently are in consultations with CTL and IDEI and make take advantage of promoting King Center Training
- A suggestion: connecting with Frances Exley – IAC Satellite Counselor
 - Focused on students
 - Conducts outreach presentations on mental health

Communications Action Group Update (and seeking everyone's feedback)

- Goal: Enhancing Communications and Transparency of the Council
 - Sharing any DEI campus-wide events or programs to the college (assuming GT DEI have a calendar)
 - Submit monthly updates in the Dean's Newsletter on the current workings of the Council (encourage Action Groups to summarize and upload/share in Teams)
 - Create a page on IAC DEI website describing the standard protocol for funding requests to the Council
 - Uploading meeting agendas and reports to the website on a regular basis to enhance transparency (use the documents that the Chair/Vice Chair would update the minutes/agenda in the Teams site after our monthly meetings)
 - Establishing standard communication channels and mechanisms for submitting final recommendations to the Deans Office and other units
 - Publishing council's year-end recommendations to the Dean/Units on our website would help strengthen the sense of transparency, accountability, and enhance IAC's ability to attract and hopefully retain URM candidates and colleagues

Community Engagement Action Group Update

- World Cafe type roundtable discussions for IAC Community
- Support Black Media Spring events
 - Black Community Network News is relocating its headquarters to Atlanta and will be hiring about 100 people
- Support Asian-American and Pacific Islander events during April-May, 2022
 - ~40% of GT students are AAPI
- Reaching out to
 - DEI to find Black Media Studies faculty
 - LGBTQIA Center
 - GTPD
 - Speaker for AAPI event(s) in April-May
